

Ryan Hamilton - The I Do Guru

"My wife and I were married in a small, intimate, ceremony. We were very specific with the wedding officiant about what we wanted and more specifically, what we did not want. We were disappointed when those requests were not followed. Years later, when I officiated my first wedding ceremony, I kept that memory with me. My goal is to work with you as a couple and ensure that it's your day."

"My wife and I asked Ryan to conduct our ceremony because we knew he could deliver an engaging, personalized and authentic experience. Ryan submerged himself into our lives to ensure a once in a lifetime event for us and our several hundred guests. The ceremony had a much more intimate yet energetic feeling than others I have attended or been a part of. If you are looking for a passionate, dynamic and engaging style that will elicit both laughter and tears, I would strongly recommend Ryan Hamilton."

"Ryan did a fantastic job making our special wedding day very memorable. He took the time to listen to our vision and when it came time to walk down the aisle he did an amazing job. We highly recommend him to all of our friends and you shouldn't hesitate to have Ryan be a part of your special day."
